Math 121 Assignment Types and Grade Calculation

Assignment Types	Grading method	Points per assignment	Total points	Percent
Online Homework assignments in WebAssign (~26)	Correct work, no partial credit	15 points	~390 points	~18% of grade
Predictable Quizzes (PQ) (~24 for Option A, 2 for Option B)	Correct work, partial credit	Option A: 15 points Option B: 0 points	Option A: ~360 points Option B: 30 points	Option A: ~16% of grade Option B: <~1% of grade
4 Exams	Correct work, partial credit	Option A: 200 points Option B: 290 points	Option A: 800 points Option B: 1160 points	Option A: ~36% of grade Option B: ~52% of grade
Study Skills (SS) 150 points are required – If you earn an A on the first exam you can choose automatic full credit (no extra credit).	Option 1: partial credit Option 2: Syllabus Search & Tutoring graded with partial credit and Coursera "Learning How to Learn" graded all-or-nothing	Option 1: 10 or 20 points, Up to 46 pts extra credit for early submissions and 2-sided printing, with substitutions. Option 2: 150 points, Up to 70 pts extra credit for early submissions, No substitutions.	150 points	~7% of grade

Comprehensive Final Exam (FE) Must earn at least 50% on final exam and have a passing average to pass course. Students earning at least 90% without rounding will be lifted one additional letter grade or to passing (C)	Correct work, partial credit		500 points	~23% of grade
Final Grade in the Course			~2200 points	100%
Extra Credit: Attendance bonus, ECPQ last class day, Study skills	varies		~168 points	additional ~7%

Final grades are rounded to the nearest whole percent.
Students must earn C or better to pass. Students earning D or F do not proceed to next math class.

Grades are assigned by:
$A \geq 90\%$
$80\% \leq B < 90\%$
$70\% \leq C < 80\%$
$60\% \leq D < 70\%$
$F < 60\%$